

Who is Metapoint?

Metapoint is not a head hunter, and is more than just a recruiter.

Metapoint is a niche technology staffing agency that is solely focused on the Business Analyst and Business Systems Analyst and their role in today's corporate environment.

Established in 2006, Metapoint is known for providing the highest quality BA's in Canada. With the emerging role of the Business Analyst as a central IT competency of the future, Metapoint is positioned to be the source for companies who need the most talented BA's for their organization. With our breadth of experience in the Business Analysis industry, we offer the expertise and insight to ensure placements that meet the most demanding needs of our Clients and Associates.

Metapoint is uniquely positioned as a strategic resource for businesses looking to hire contract or permanent Business Analysts. All Metapoint candidates will have undergone a rigorous selection and assessment program which rates candidates in specific BA competencies and performance indicators. Metapoint Associates also have access to some of the industry's leading training programs for BA's. And all candidates placed will have received their Business Systems Analysis Certificate, ensuring a standard of quality for all Metapoint placements.
